To Whom It May Concern:

I want to stress how important this settlement with Microsoft means to me as a consumer and as a Tax Payer. I want to continue to benefit from Microsoft's innnovations. I do not want any more of my tax dollars spent to fight the competitors inability to be as creative. Mircsoft has agreed to modify future business practices. Do not penalize a company who has the consumers best interests at heart. Do not reward competitors who have grown bigger and better because of the competition. Do not force us to keep spending our hard earned money litigating.

Sincerely yours
Jean Y. Neal
